GENERAL NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN

Socialistic Convention

PITTSBURG, Dec —Yesterday [illegible] and afternoon were taken up by the civil convention in the [illegible] which the press were excluded. In the [illegible] the public were admitted [illegible] the committee heard the [illegible] which was referred. The report of the [illegible] the committee [illegible] democracy put a candidate [illegible] president in opposition [illegible] the republican and democratic parties [illegible] urged the passage of a resolution [illegible] act. The report of the committee deals at some length with the [illegible] organizations which [illegible] are in violation of the constitution and should not be tolerated. The report was adopted and on motion taken up in sections. The balance of the evening was consumed in hearing reports of other committees which were of an uninteresting nature.

Lynch Law

ALEXANDRIA, La. Dec 29.—Four negroes charged with murder were taken from the jail last night by a mob of 50 men and shot to death. Two other prisoners are reported to have been lynched.

Money Going Westward

NEW YORK, Dec 28.—The Commercial Bulletin, commenting on the present extraordinary condition of the associated banks and the spectacle of money flowing westward by millions at a time when it always flowed this way, says: This wholly exceptional state of things is largely due to the circumstance of a large speculator having become saddled with an immense load of grain, finds it necessary to protect himself by accepting all that offers on the market and thus a large portion of western stocks are being prematurely transferred to New York ownership. It is estimated that the operator alluded to owns fully 20 million bushels of grain in Chicago—cash and option. The total value of which must be about $12,500,000 and it is probable that money now going to that city may be used with the deliveries to be made in the options. These extravagant operations have the most deranging effect upon the market as well as upon foreign exchanges and are exciting much condemnatory comment.

Electric Light.

NEW YORK, Dec 25.—The Herald says the laboratory of Edison at Menlo Park was brilliantly illuminated last night with the new electric light, the occasion being the visit of a number of the inventor's personal friends. The lamps in all were burning from 6 o'clock until after 10. The effect of the exhibition was to convince those present who were skeptical that Mr Edison had in fact produced the electric light for house illumination. No day is yet set for the formal public exhibition, but it is quite probable that inside of a week everything will be in readiness to be seen by all who desire to visit Menlo Park.

Electric Exhibition.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—The Paris correspondent of the New York Times details the [illegible] of the Werdermann electric [illegible] Dr. Herz, of California, has been [illegible] against overwhelming opposition [illegible] demonstrated its superiority over [illegible] candle in an unmistakable [illegible]. Both systems were on trial before an audience of scientists and state [illegible] in the hall of the opera, of which [illegible] says, the ball opened with a brilliant [illegible] of light from the Jabloch [illegible] which were several minutes in advance of their competitors, owing to the de[illegible] of their company in handing over the [illegible] steam engine, and were in full [illegible] the others began to [illegible]. The first impressions were very favorable to the Russian system which had been provided with roofs of yellow tinted [illegible] to conceal the violent hues characteristic of this light, furnished by the arc. [illegible] impressions did not last long. The [illegible] soon exhibited all their usual defects [illegible] variations of color commenced instantly. There was a change of intensity [illegible] increasing in proportion as the can[illegible] consumed and the whole accompanied by an unpleasant crackling noise. Five minutes after the Wardermann lamps began [illegible] not a single person remained at the [illegible] end of the hall. Everybody [illegible] the other extremity and without [illegible] voice admired the soft light [illegible] the faintest imaginable yellow tint [illegible] the interposition of no colored [illegible] allow its garnish effulgence. There [illegible] a moment's hesitation in the ver[illegible] who went there to form an opinion, [illegible] among them were several who [illegible] prejudiced in favor of the can[illegible] have been in use for more than [illegible] months on place de L'Opera and [illegible] avenues.

A Handsome Legacy

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—The will of Alexander [illegible] sugar refiner, was found to-day [illegible] his entire estate real and personal [illegible] about $7,000,000, to his brother [illegible] Stuart, and appoints him executor.

Associate Justice.

[illegible], Dec. 29.—A special from Concord to [illegible] says a member of congress states [illegible] been decided to present the name [illegible] the appointment of Chief Justice [illegible] of New Hampshire, to a position [illegible] bench of the supreme court of the United States.

A Boiler Explodes.

[illegible], Ills Dec 29.—This morning [illegible] explosion at the Etna flouring mills [illegible] filled the neighborhood for two [illegible] around with splinters, bricks and fragments of iron. Buildings in the vicinity [illegible] considerably shattered. Glass windows [illegible] destroyed for several blocks. The damage is about $25,000 in all. The dome of the [illegible] on the roof of the Western Union [illegible] office and passed down to the third [illegible] of the men in the mill were in [illegible] the engineer who is missing. His [illegible] found on top of a building two [illegible] and it is thought his body will be [illegible] some other building. The cause of the explosion is not yet known.

En Route for New York

[illegible], N J, Dec 29.—President Hayes [illegible] through this city en route for New York. The train stopped for a few [illegible]. A large crowd gathered, city officials, clergy and others. The president [illegible] acknowledgment of the greetings [illegible] no address.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Continued Silence.

WASHINGTON, Dec 28.—It is learned that [illegible] purpose of Gen Grant's visit to [illegible] at this time is to enable him to [illegible] business talk with Gen Beale who [illegible] charge of his property here during [illegible] absence abroad. Gen Grant also [illegible] to break his journey south and to [illegible] old friends for the purpose of social enjoyment, but he continues to maintain strict [illegible] even among his personal friends [illegible] the subject of the presidential nomination and all collateral topics so far as they [illegible] his own future.

Gen. Grant in Washington

WASHINGTON, Dec 29.—Gen Grant and [illegible] made a social call this morning [illegible] Hayes, and afterwards spent an hour [illegible] visiting the departments. This evening [illegible] will be entertained at dinner by [illegible].

Representative Aiken's Views

Washington [illegible] says that [illegible] Aiken of South Carolina has written [illegible] in reply to the criticisms of southern [illegible] of his former utterances regarding the [illegible] presidential contest in which he says he [illegible] Hendricks, Hancock nor Bayard [illegible] enough for [illegible] elect [illegible] to insure him when backed by [illegible] southern vote. An undisputed claim to [illegible] executive chair I am not called upon [illegible] nominate a presidential ticket but I believe that there are men in the north [illegible] purity of character and weight [illegible] to become the people's candidate [illegible] be nominated by every democrat [illegible] and who would govern the [illegible] for the benefit of the whole country [illegible] not simply for the aggrandizement of [illegible] party. While I do not think that [illegible] of the above mentioned men could [illegible] this end I would be sanguine of success [illegible] with such men as Horatio Seymour of New York, or David Davis of Illinois were in nomination. In years gone by the [illegible] of the democratic party was [illegible] to-day the chief leaders of the northern or eastern democracy are [illegible] [illegible]

ENGLISH VICTORY

Gen Roberts Reports a Victory before Cabul—Cabulese Loss Severe—English Loss—Particulars, etc.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

LONDON, D[illegible] [illegible] gives it as follows:

[illegible] attack [illegible] occupying distant villages and approached [illegible] as it broke day. At [illegible] o'clock the signal fire was lighted on Asmi heights (we had [illegible] that this would be the enemy's signal for attack) and immediately afterwards the attack was commenced on three sides. We were already prepared for it on the south and west. The enemy did not show much determination but on the northeast corner of Behmaroo heights some thousands collected and evidently contemplated an assault. Gen Hugh Gough, ably assisted by Col Jenkins commanded here. As soon as the enemy's intention was fully developed I determined on a counter attack with the cavalry and artillery. These issued by a gorge between Behmaroo heights, opened fire on the enemy's flank and speedily dislodged them. The cavalry pursued and sabred numbers of the enemy who retired from all points and hastily retreated to the city. We have now occupied some advanced villages, particularly those on the Butkak road. Gen Charles Gough's camp is visible six miles to the east.

A dispatch from Gen Roberts dated Cabul Dec. 24 is as follows:

Our success yesterday was complete. The enemy's loss was severe. Our losses were five killed, including Capt. Dundas and Lieut Nugent of the engineers by a premature explosion when blowing up the towers of a neighboring village, and twenty three wounded, the majority of whom are doing well. Those of the enemy living in Cabul went straight to their houses after the defeat. The Kohistans and Logaris remained in Cabul a few hours but all fled during the night, but the enemy's leader Mushk Alum (a priest) Mahomed Jan fled early in the day. Another prominent leader is reported to have fled with Yakoob Khan's eldest son towards Wardak. The cavalry have gone in pursuit. The Bala Hissar and the city will be taken possession of this afternoon. The former will be occupied if it appears certain that there is no danger from hidden mines of powder. Yakoob Khan's wife, mother and daughter of the late Akbar Khan who are reported to contemplate flight and who have done all in their power to incite Ghazais will be brought to Sherpur to-day. I have telegraphed General Bright to push the northward detachments from Jagdaluk to Lehbara and Latabar. I send a force to occupy Butkak to-morrow. Communication with India will thus be restored. Gen Charles Gough's brigade arrived this morning. A light snow fell last night. All well.

Akbar Khan (referred to by General Roberts) was the principal opponent of the British in 1841 and his daughter is reported to have distributed £20,000 among the Afghans to incite them to the present rising.

Total British Loss.

CALCUTTA, Dec 29.—Gen Roberts telegraphs under date of 26th as follows: "Butkak has been re-occupied. Force will start for Kohistan to-morrow to punish those who participated in the recent movement there. General Roberts total loss to date is 77 killed and 220 wounded."

Fearful Explosion.

LONDON Dec 29.—Further telegrams from Gen Roberts dated the 26th says a heavy snow fall of the 25th inst prevented the pursuit of the enemy. The country about Cabul and line of communication are now clear. Bala Hissar magazine has been emptied. There were several explosions in Bala Hissar during its occupation by the insurgents and one explosion it is stated killed a hundred persons. The telegraph line was for a good part destroyed but it is being rapidly repaired.

MURDERERS LYNCHED

Two Men Taken from the Golden, Colorado, Jail and Lynched

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN)

DENVER Col. Dec 28.—Two men, Sam Woodruff and Joe Seminole, the latter a half breed Indian, who murdered R B Hayward, farmer of Jefferson county on the 10th of last September, were taken from jail at Golden and lynched at one o'clock this morning by one hundred and fifty masked men. The murder for which the two men were lynched was cold blooded and cowardly. The men Seminole and Woodruff stopped at the house of their victim R B Hayward near Golden and employed him to take them to a cattle camp in the mountains. He started out with them and was never seen afterwards alive by his family. For several days a search was made for him, and three weeks later his body was found in a culvert a short distance from Denver. A clue was obtained as to the direction which the men had gone and it was closely followed. It was discovered that on the night of the murder the men had driven into Denver and put up the team intending to sell it next day. On the morning following the sale was made of the team for $185, ten dollars of the money being paid in cash and the rest in a check. The men then hired a team, which they took a short distance and then cut loose the horses and went off on them. The sheriff Thomas Jefferson Carr got a clue as to the direction in which one of the men (Seminole) had gone and he was followed to the Piute agency in Dakota where he was arrested. On being arrested he made a confession and gave a description of Woodruff who seems to have been the principal in the murder. He says that they were riding along with Hayward, he being on the front seat with Hayward and Woodruff on the back when the latter got into an argument with the murdered man and in the midst of it he struck him a severe blow which almost knocked him out of the wagon but before he fell he seized him and choked him to death. Woodruff then told Seminole to take the reins, and throwing the body on the bottom of the wagon they drove on until they came to the culvert where it was found. Here the body was thrown out and Woodruff took it and placed it under the culvert. When found the neck was broken. Deputy Sheriff Hawley of the association acting upon Seminole's confession and description of Woodruff went to Big Grove Iowa thirty miles east of Council Bluffs, where Woodruff had a brother and arrested him at the muzzle of a shot gun and brought him back to Denver. Seminole was arrested October 10th and Woodruff on November 25th. When the men were brought here Mrs Hayward and her two daughters came down from Golden and identified the prisoners as the men who had gone away with Hayward.

UNPARALLELED RAILROAD ACCIDENT

About Seventy Five Passengers Hurled Into Eternity by the Giving Way of the Girders of a Bridge

THE SCENE OF THE WRECK—NO SURVIVORS

A Train on the North British Railway Falls Eighty-eight feet—Latest Particulars of the Frightful Casualty as depicted by Press Correspondents

[illegible] TO THE OREGONIAN

[illegible] Dec [illegible] A M.—The manager of the North British railway telegraphs from [illegible] four hours [illegible] with the last train [illegible] [illegible] before the storm. If the disaster was ascertained. The damage to the wires on the bridge and the bad weather interfered with the transmission of the news and it is unknown whether the girders were blown down before the train entered the bridge or were carried away with it and it probably never will be ascertained as there are no survivors.

The train left Edinburgh at 4 P.M. in the afternoon. It consisted of four third class, one first class and one second class and brakesman's van. At the last station before crossing the bridge tickets were taken and the train was then crowded.

Vast quantities of wreckage such as doors and roofs of carriages, pieces of bridge and articles of wearing apparel are coming ashore. The entire thirteen girders of the long central spans of the bridge are gone. The night was one of bright moonlight but the wind was blowing a hurricane.

No Survivors

1 P M.—The provost of Dundee and a party of citizens who accompanied him to the scene of the disaster have returned. Search was made about the bridge in small boats but no trace of any survivors could be found. The gap in the bridge was about half a mile long comprising eleven of the largest spans each 245 feet in length and one span 145 feet in length.

The Scene of the Disaster.

NEW YORK Dec 28.—A special from Dundee says the appalling catastrophe of last evening has thrown the city into a state of frantic excitement, and the neighborhood of the fatal bridge is thronged with horror stricken visitors. Not a soul escaped who was on the ill fated train. The gallantry of James Roberts, locomotive superintendent of the North British railway of Dundee, and Stationmaster Smith, on venturing on the bridge, is highly commended, in spite of the fury of the gale which rendered the attempt doubly perilous. After tremendous exertions, their hands lacerated by clinging to the rails for dear life, they reached the edge of the fatal gap. Here they discovered that thirteen girders, each 245 feet wide and weighing 250 tons, all forming a kind of tunnel in the middle of the bridge, had been washed away. Nothing remained but the bare iron piers. About one-third of the whole structure had vanished. Thirteen brick work stumps were to be seen in the midst of the waves. It is positively asserted that 315 people are lost.

LONDON Dec 29.—The Standard, in an editorial this morning says that when the first feeling of horror which hangs over the country shall have subsided a searching investigation into the cause of the accident will be demanded by the people, and nothing short of a complete answer will be accepted. The gale to which the bridge succumbed was not exceptionally violent, the train of cars having apparently nothing to do with the accident which had occurred before the cars reached the broken portion. Our national reputation is at stake and the investigation must be searching, indeed.

Bodies Recovered.

LONDON Dec 29—4:30 P M.—A dispatch from Dundee asserts that the number of lives lost by the Tay bridge disaster does not exceed 90. The bodies of six of the victims have been recovered.

Not so Bad.

6 P M.—The railway authorities now estimate the total number of lives lost at 75. A telegram from Dundee states that only 56 passenger tickets were taken up at the last stopping place, but these do not account for the number of young children requiring no tickets, nor for the number of railway employes, nor for passengers for Broughty Ferry whose tickets were not taken up. However if this statement is correct it is evident the loss of life has been greatly over estimated.

Eye Witnesses to the Disaster

NEW YORK Dec 29.—A London special to the Telegram says the tidings of the disaster were first conveyed by a gentleman who had left his house with a friend while the south west gale was blowing with all its fury. They began discussing whether on such a night the Edinburg train would venture across the bridge. They then went to the block telegraph signal box situated at the north end of the bridge where they found a number of men also anxiously awaiting information on the subject. Some of them asserted that they had seen the lights of the train in question enter on the bridge and cross the lower spans into the high girders. Then they saw a sudden shower of fire which with the lights of the train seemed to descend with great velocity into the river, then perfect darkness followed. Minutes and minutes passed but no signs of the train were seen, and the people assured themselves [illegible] were those really the lights of the [illegible] train which they had seen so suddenly quenched? The horror stricken beholders made vehement appeal to the signal man to ascertain the truth. He replied that all he knew of the matter was that the train had been signaled to him from the south end of the bridge at 7:20 o'clock. Discovering no indications of the approaching train the alarmed signal man endeavored to telegraph to the south end of the bridge but communication had ceased.

To be Investigated

LONDON Dec 29.—The government has sent two inspectors to ascertain the particulars of the Tay bridge disaster and has also directed a formal inquiry into the occurrence. Divers have thus far been unable to discover the wrecked train. They will make another effort to-day. The place where the train sank is full of quicksands and if the bodies of the drowned are not recovered within a few days they will become embedded with the cars beyond recovery.

The Queen's Sympathy

The Queen has telegraphed to the provost of Dundee tendering sympathy for the bereaved.

The new steam engine of the A. G. & S. M. Co is working finely. The 10 stamp mill started up on the 10th inst. They will clean up on Jan 10th and if the result proves as favorable as anticipated, an assessment will be levied for the purpose of putting up 30 additional stamps. Owing to the frequent snow storms work has been suspended on the Witch mine for the present.

United States Deputy Marshal Byrnes is aboard with three witnesses in the Jack Williams attempted murder case. Robert Roy, whom Williams shot, is aboard and is recovering.

Good placer diggings have been struck near Shuck in Alaska.

Shakes and Koot-a-shan, head chiefs of the Stickeen Indians, are aboard en route to Portland to visit Rev Dr Lindsley of the Missionary Society. They have elegant presents of much interest and value for the doctor.

The California has $5000 in treasure from Sitka and 40 packages of furs and skins.

Reports have reached Sitka that troubles have broken out at Chilcat and that Klotz [illegible] had been shot and was not expected to live and that war was imminent. Capt Beardslee sent Sitka Jack with a party of Indians supplied with provisions from the Jamestown to quell the trouble. Sitka Jack on leaving the Jamestown loaded up with whisky and started on his mission visiting all the tribes on his way, including the Hoochenoos and others, selling and distributing whisky to all of them. On arriving at the Chilcat river he dispensed abundant whisky to the lower village and then going to the seat of war at the upper village made whisky flow like water. Prof Muir and Rev Mr Young of the Presbyterian mission started to visit the Chilcat village but found the whole tribe had become utterly demoralized under the influence of Captain Beardslee's peace commissioner, and the chief sent notice to Professor Muir's party that he had no particular desire to see them as he had one guest already, Sitka Jack, and had just waked up from a ten days drunken sleep. There were no grounds for the reported trouble, and no one hurt [illegible] from the effects of the peace commissioner's visit.

At Wrangel serious trouble rages among the Indians. An Indian recently murdered a woman and the friends of the victim appealed to Mr Young and the deputy collector to arrest the murderer but they having no authority to act so notified them, informing them that they must punish the culprit under their own laws. The Indians finally held a secret conclave and determined to arrest and hang the murderer and this they were proceeding to do when the Indian intrenched himself and is still refusing to surrender, and at last accounts he and his friends were keeping up a constant warfare and had killed one white [illegible] and a [illegible] being wounded and matters were very serious.

The president's message was a great disappointment to the citizens of Alaska as they had been led to believe that a just territorial government would have been recommended instead of simply the appointment of magistrates with appeal to the United States courts of Oregon, as any justice administered in Oregon will be totally inefficient in Alaska and the expense of trying two or three cases a year would be more than the establishment and maintenance of a territorial court which would be effective in preserving order.

BELFAST, Dec [illegible].—Hayford Hall was packed to [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] Hon. Wm. [illegible] the law [illegible] was clearly unconstitutional. Hon Wm [illegible] gave a full explanation of the [illegible] requirements in [illegible] He said that when the returns reached [illegible] before the legislature they would [illegible] election of [illegible] the [illegible] that the legislature will [illegible] election of their own members. [illegible] will be presented to the legislature on the [illegible] of January unless the state house is seized by a mob until the [illegible] destroyed previous to that time. He challenged any man to put his finger on a single thing he had done not in accordance with the constitution, the laws and precedent. On closing, the governor was loudly applauded and three cheers given him.

Hon Wm K McAllister, attorney general, next addressed the meeting. He commenced by speaking of the lawyers who had spoken at the indignation meeting on Saturday evening and said the had made many false statements. He denied emphatically the statement that it has been made that he advised the governor not to submit the questions in dispute to the supreme court.

Resolutions were adopted supporting the governor and council and the meeting adjourned with three cheers for Gov Garcelon.

Those Questions

AUGUSTA Dec 29.—The governor has decided not to submit to the supreme court the questions propounded by Morrill. This is obtained on good authority though it will not be put in writing before to-morrow. The excuse for not submitting them is that most of the points have already been adjudicated upon. There could not be opportunity to organize a legal legislature if the decision of the court were awaited, as certificates must be issued to members twenty days before the meeting of the legislature. In addition the governor claims he has no legal right to withdraw certificates already issued and since each house is judge of its own elections if there are wrongs they can be righted.

Militia for Augusta

PORTLAND Dec 29.—Captain Lynch of the Montgomery Guards has notified his men to be ready to march at instant notice from which it is inferred that the company with the light infantry will be called to Augusta.

Ratification Meetings.

AUGUSTA Dec 29.—Governor Garcelon went to Belfast to-day to attend a meeting called to sustain the course of the Governor and council. A similar meeting was held this evening in Rockland.

Will Preserve Order

The governor sent for the mayor this afternoon to consult in regard to the proper police force for preserving order on the reassembling of the legislature. The mayor had just finished writing a communication to his excellency on the subject and conveyed it in person and assured the governor that all the needed preparations have been made for keeping the peace. Two hundred extra policemen have been already appointed and this number will be increased if the exigencies of the case require. He said he was able to keep order, and advised the governor not to bring troops to the capitol or make any preparations for arming them. He thought the citizens of Augusta would bear him out in his assurances. The governor talked quite freely and informed the mayor he had a great dislike of bringing troops here and should not do it if peace could be maintained in any other way. It would be his duty to preserve order and prevent interference with the members of the legislature.

Butler Denies

BOSTON, Dec 29.—Gen Butler contradicts the statement that he has given Garcelon and the council legal advice in the course they have taken. He had never been asked to advise about that matter, does not see how they could have acted otherwise than they have and strictly followed the constitution and laws, the governor is not a judge. Butler is reported as saying nor are he and the council a returning board, but simply a canvassing board they are to ascertain who appear to be elected from returns.

Will not be Submitted to the Courts.

AUGUSTA Dec 29.—It is the general opinion that Gov Garcelon will not submit to the supreme court questions propounded by Gov Morrill. The republicans will be prepared for this and present the question through the majority of the members of the last senate as it should, ought such proceedings would conform to the law. The disposition is to exhaust every legal means before others are tried.

Does not Want the Militia Called Out

Mayor Nash of this city will to-day address a letter to Gov Garcelon urging him not to call out the militia on the assembling of the legislature as that would provoke the bringing up of force on the other side. He will state that the extra police force provided by the city is amply able to preserve the public peace.

LONDON Dec 28.—The Chilean legation at Paris announces that it has received a telegram stating that the president of Peru has arrived at Panama enroute to the United States and Europe.

For journey man tayler read Jeremy Taylor and begin Barrow with a capital letter, and all is right.

ONE COLD IS SOMETIMES CONTRACTED ON TOP OF ANOTHER, the accompanying Cough becoming settled and confirmed and the Lungs so strained and racked that the production of tubercles frequently follows. Many existing cases of pulmonary disease may be thus accounted for and yet how many others are now carelessly allowing themselves to drift through the preliminary symptoms controlled by the fatal policy of allowing a Cold to take care of itself. On the first intimation of a Cough or Cold or any Throat or Lung trouble resort promptly to Dr Jayne's Expectorant, a safe curative of long established reputation and you may avoid the consequences of such dangerous trifling. *Sold by Hodge, Davis & Co., Portland. THE INFAMY IN MAINE

Were it only for the control of the state legislature it is not to be expected that the Maine infamy was about to be consummated by the democrats there would be reason for less energy and less sympathy than is manifested by the republicans of the state directly concerned and far less for that which is shown by the party throughout the country. But the fruits of the crime for the details make it notorious are expected by those who are attempting it to be of much more value to the party than the mere possession of the state government and the majority of the legislative assembly. The plot which now appears to have been originated prior to the election which took place as [illegible] is believed to have been set on foot by leaders in the democratic party outside of Maine and that all the force or fraud of which the party master will be brought in requisition to accomplish it. It is claimed that not only did a corrupt fusion secretary of state send out to some of the clerks in republican counties poll books and tally lists defective in form with the intent fairly presumable that the canvassers might take advantage of these technical defects in counting the votes but that during the canvass of the returns by the governor and council which lasted for seventeen days all applications on the part of the republican candidates in person, through counsel and through the republican committee for the privilege of inspecting the returns with a view to making a correction of any technical errors was refused though the law of the state expressly provides that the correction of such errors may be made within a certain time and that time had not expired when the privilege of inspection was asked. It is also asserted that the democratic and greenback candidates were allowed to scrutinize the returns though the same privilege was denied to the republicans. Notwithstanding the claim of the governor and his councilors that they have followed the strict letter of the law and the constitution of the state it is undeniably true that the will of the people has been defeated by technicalities, a condition that must always be a great wrong. Never before has the privilege of inspecting the returns been confined to one party and the fact that this privilege was given to the defeated party alone, with the result of over riding the popular will as expressed at the polls is ample evidence of the fraudulent intent with which the plan was adopted.

Of the results which the party attempting to perpetrate this great wrong expect to reap from it if it be successful, the first is, the election of Smith, the greenback candidate for governor, and a fusion council of democrats and greenbackers. The second is the choice of Garcelon the chief actor in the villainy, as U S senator next year by the votes of the hold over state senators who have been counted in by him with the help of such new members as the democrats can get into the legislature at the next election. Thirdly, the grand object is to hold the state for the democrats in the presidential contest. An exchange suggests that this may be done in two ways. The fusion legislature may pass a law vesting in itself the power to appoint the presidential electors or it may elect a governor and council pledged to pursue the same infamous policy that Garcelon and his council have followed this year for overcoming the republican majorities. The legislature if allowed to stand, however as made up by the governor, will probably not dare to take the former course, for such action would be a confession of the real design, and would be looked at as provoking the republican states of the north in such a manner as would make the election of the republican candidate absolutely certain. Were this course adopted by all the states the democrats could not appoint more than 160, which is 14 less than a majority. It is therefore likely that the Maine democrats will not attempt to inaugurate this change in the system of choosing electors but will trust to their canvassing board to count the state for their candidate in spite of any republican majority which may be given against him. The Chicago Tribune takes substantially the above view of the situation, and says it demands from the republicans of Maine resistance a l'outre to the infamy which the "fusionists" are seeking to consummate. The whole country has an interest in defeating the villainy, and it is a duty which the republicans of Maine owe to the nation, as well as to themselves to refuse submission to the plot. The fight will be the shorter and the victory the surer by making a stand now against unlawful and revolutionary assumption of power.

RAILROAD LEGISLATION

Recent dispatches say that the present congress propose vast changes in the railroad system of the country. Several measures have been proposed for the control of inter state railroads. One of these measures is to appoint railroad commissioners to whom all questions relating to inter-state railroads should be referred, with power to punish any infringement of schedule rates or discriminations. The whole to be subject to appeal to the United States courts as at present. These commissioners are to hold office for four years, to be appointed by the president and confirmed by the senate, to be paid a fixed salary by the general government. The objections raised to this measure are numerous and weighty. The first great objection is the patent anticipation that these commissioners will be controlled in the interest of the great corporations that now control our railroads, or in the parlance of lobyists be "owned" by railroad men. This objection is raised whenever it is proposed to place any institution or corporation under the supervision of the government or state through a supervising board. Another objection to this is that it in no wise shortens or curtails the lengthy adjudications necessary to reach the desired end. The whole course would have to be gone through just as though there was no supervision of any kind. In fact, the commissioners would only add one more round in the long ladder of adjudication without a single modifying influence on the final determination of the question involved. This method of bringing the roads under control seems impracticable and chimerical.

Another proposed bill is to appoint nine more United States judges to hold courts in the nine circuits of the United States appointed like other judges by the president to hold office like other U S judges during life and to have the exclusive jurisdiction of circuit courts in the matters pertaining to railroads and other common carriers. It is argued that these judges holding their positions for life would be beyond the control of the influence of politics and money and that each year's experience will add to their fitness to perform the duties of their positions. [illegible] latter plan has not been fully matured [illegible] is said that it will have a strong support from the interior department. Another provision of this measure is that all [illegible] must report to Auditor French's bureau. The head functionaries of this department are to be the commissioners of railroads.

The growing strength of the great corporations has for years been a cause of apprehension to the people of the country. It is high time that something be done to bring these grasping corporations under control and any measure that is seriously contemplated should receive the most studious attention of congress as a bad law will operate against the public.

THE PROSPECT OF INDIAN WAR

Monday's dispatches contain a long account of the closing scenes of the parley between the Ute Indian commission and that tribe. The news described a startling scene some time since which was interpreted as a vote [illegible] question of war or peace which involved the surrender of the members of the tribe guilty of the murder of Meeker and [illegible] some months ago. It was learned that the Indians [illegible] render [illegible] they will [illegible] Ouray the peaceful friend of the whites who had from the beginning played the treacherous part of his diplomacy which has created for him [illegible] gained for him was deputed to bring in the accused. After repeated extensions of time to accomplish his mission he arrives and says that he understood that they were all going to Washington to have a talk with the great father on the subject of their wrongs. The whole affair amounts to the fact that Ouray who is fearful for the safety of his tribe has not the power to deliver up the accused and had prolonged the [illegible] numbers of the commission as until [illegible] to give them time to prepare for the worst. But the worst had not been told and even the sanguine members of the commission are brought to a realization of the fact that their labors have been in vain. The dispatches say that the evidence against the Indians demanded by the commission is of such a character as to insure the conviction of only a few of them and hints at other and graver charges which they will be called upon to answer. The commission has practically closed its work and the strong arm of force will have to be invoked to resent this savage outrage. It may involve months of war as it is not to be hoped that anything will be done before spring. It will certainly entail an immense cost on the government and the close observer may truthfully ask to what purpose to teach the powers that be the folly of the present system of treating the Indians. In this case, however should the authorities totally exterminate the Ute tribe the real aggressors the Mormons who have incited the Indians to their bloody and brutal work may remain unpunished and it is to be hoped that the authorities will hold them responsible as principals and punish them as ordinary criminals.

The Chicago Tribune reports Speaker Randall to be carefully washing his soft white hands of all responsibility of the extra session blunder, and so do his democratic sisters and his cousins and his aunts since they have observed its disastrous effects upon the prospects of their party. It was a piece of stupidity that they were all pretty well agreed about,—Thurman because he wanted to be president pro tem of the senate, Jo Blackburn because he wanted to be speaker of the house and the whole confederate pack because they thought they had the power to coerce the administration or starve the government.

The tendency toward America of the more prosperous class of British tenant farmers, men who have accumulated some wealth but who see nothing in the agricultural outlook to encourage them to remain in their own country, is becoming more noticeable this winter than ever before. Numerous delegations from farming communities in England and Scotland have visited the United States and Canada in search of information as to the most attractive regions for the purchase or development of farms and a very general movement in this direction is anticipated during the coming winter and spring.

The expenses taken from the contingent fund during the democratic congress have been $260 085, an increase of $107 883 or sixty six per cent over the last republican congress. The money was chiefly spent by junketing committees in all parts of the country. So much for democratic economy.

The trifling majority of 290 votes which Hoskins received for lieutenant governor of New York over Clarkson N Potter has most effectually squelched the little boom which some friends of the latter had started.

MR LOUIS BACHENBERGER WALKING down street to day I noticed you were trying to make a big sensation with your two loads of beer imported from San Francisco. Do you believe for one moment that the people in Portland will be humbugged by you with such action? No is the answer because every sensible man will rather patronize home production at any time since when do you pretend to run the home production out of market with your San Francisco swill? Do you remember the time when you were glad to get a barrel of beer on credit from the brewers of Portland. PATENTED JUNE 13, 1876.

These Goods have been sold during the past three years. All who have worn them pronounce the mode of fastening

ABSOLUTELY PERFECT.

The many annoyances connected with the old system of Button Gloves are entirely overcome and the following advantages secured

1st:—The perfect ease and rapidity with which it is laced
2nd—Its adjustability to fit the different sized wrists
3rd—The advantage gained by gradually straining the Kid instead of the old system which ruins so many pairs the first time buttoned
4th—Strength of Hooks and mode of clinching them. The fastening will outlast any glove which is a very rare occurrence with buttons

Independent of Improvement in fastening the quality is guaranteed equal, if not superior to any other glove in the market

WEATHER PROBABILITIES

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE [illegible]

WASHINGTON Dec 30—[illegible] A M [illegible] clear possibly [illegible]

OUR NEW YEAR'S NUMBER

THE OREGONIAN of January 1 1880 will be a mammoth double sheet at which [illegible] chronological form a history [illegible] events for 1879 the location description and the name of the owner of every building erected [in] Portland [during] the year a list of marriages and deaths in Multnomah [illegible] a complete statement of the [illegible] improvements a review of the city's commerce, grain and flour exports and as usual, all telegraphic and local news. The list of new buildings has been prepared with special care and is the reflex of Portland's wonderful growth and prosperity. The paper will be one of great value as a record and for furnishing eastern readers a correct idea [illegible] this city's greatness

WARNING TO PUNSTERS.—The average editor is long suffering and forbearing, yea he is meek and seeks not to exalt himself But sometimes even gentle patience is forced beyond its limits For instance yesterday morning a tall delicately formed chap holding in his good right hand a suspicious looking roll of manuscript which may have been a "Poem on Spring" or the "Beautiful Snow" walked into the editorial rooms and seated himself by the red hot stove At the moment the fellow entered several gentlemen were earnestly discussing the much talked of engagement between U S Grant Jr and Miss Jennie Flood daughter of the millionaire of San Francisco The chap rose to his feet, cleared his throat and placing himself in the attitude of "Sweet Spirit Hear My Prayer" remarked in a sad sepulchral voice "There is a tide in the affairs of young men which taken at its Flood leads on to fortune" In just three seconds and a quarter by the office chronometer the pale youth picked himself up at the foot of the stairs with hat and manuscript with several fractured ribs

ACCIDENT TO THE BONANZA.—Yesterday afternoon the steamer Bonanza met with an accident at Milwaukie which fortunately did not result in serious damage While making a landing at Milwaukie the steamer struck her bow against a piece of timber and stove a small hole—about a foot square The hole was a few inches above the water line but the steamer was heavily loaded with flour and wheat. Fortunately the cargo sustained no damage. However the hole was so near the water line that the boat could not proceed without forcing water into the hull Word was sent to the office here and the steamer Orient dispatched to the assistance of the Bonanza. About 50 tons of freight was transferred to the former boat and both came down to this city All necessary repairs were made to the Bonanza last night, and this morning she will go up the river

DEATH OF JOS. L ALLISON.—About seven o'clock last night, Joseph L Allison died at his dwelling on Clay st., near Thirteenth. [illegible] Portland in 1861-2 was associated with Gov Curry in the publication of the Commercial Advertiser, and from here went to The Dalles and afterwards to Puget sound [illegible] connected with several newspaper [illegible] in Oregon and Washington territory. He leaves a wife and three children in [illegible] circumstances, the wife having recently passed through child-birth, and is now unable to leave her bed Mr Allison [illegible] four or five months with consumption and suffered great pain and anguish [illegible] distress and the unfortunate condition of the family.

[illegible] AFFAIR.—Meager particulars of a [illegible] affair, which occurred a few days [illegible], Washington territory have [illegible] here It appears that a half-breed whose name could not be ascertained became engaged in an altercation with a white man named Phillips. Words led to blows, resulting in Phillips getting the advantage The half-breed, however, at length managed to extricate himself from the fight and stabbed Phillips a number of times, when the parties were separated. At last accounts Phillips was living although his recovery was deemed doubtful.

FROM EASTERN OREGON.—A correspondent writing to THE OREGONIAN from Heppner under date of Dec. 22d says This morning is clear and cold, snow nearly eight inches deep. The thermometer stands 2° below zero at sunrise. Friday night the stage driver was lost for 8 hours in the Blue mountains. At 2 P. M., the thermometer stands at 12° above zero. The same correspondent writing under date of the 25th says Weather cold and freezing steadily since 2 o clock this morning Wind is from the north and very cutting, snow [illegible] sheep men way down in the mouth

Mr Scheffler is sole proprietor of the principle known as the vacuum process of distilling by which the fusil oils are left with the residue and not incorporated with the brandy leaving it pure and free from all deleterious substances which does and must exist in all alcoholic liquors distilled by the usual process of boiling heat California Physicians have pronounced their preference of it to all other Doctor Cox government revenue officer at Cincinnati, Ohio, says in his report, that after ten years' of close investigation he can safely say that very few if any pure wines or brandy are exported from the Old Continent to this He has found none in his many analyses—that all are doctored before leaving France The French Consul at Buenos Ayres writes home to his government that so much complaint is made there of the appearance of litharge and other dangerous drugs in all their French wines that there is great danger of losing the trade of the Argentine States Other proofs could be cited were it necessary to prove the superiority of the best class of California wines and brandy Orders from responsible parties addressed to Wm Scheffler or Geo H Beach St Helena Napa county Cal will receive prompt attention

AMUSEMENTS.

THE ILLUSIONISTS —Messrs Thorn & Clarkson made their appearance last evening [illegible] should have been a larger audience The performance is exceedingly clever and entertaining, especially the hour spent with the Chevalier Thorn in his hour in Dreamland His manipulation of the cards was the best we have ever had here and in this it was not surpassed by the late Robert Heller The gold fish trick which was given here by Herman some few years ago last one of the attraction last night to [illegible] is the [illegible] Thorn [illegible] The most marvel [illegible] was [illegible] the flying bird [illegible] It was the [illegible] wonderful achievement ever accomplished [illegible] and [illegible] the best trick that has been present [illegible] The [illegible] were however the [illegible] attraction of the evening The [illegible] clever and at [illegible] Messrs Thorn and Darvi having been [illegible] by a committee of [illegible] gentlemen [illegible] cabinet [illegible] appear [illegible] horns play [illegible] various instruments which must have been the work of many hands In a twinkling however the cabinet is opened and the [illegible] are securely tied leaving the committee and audience in perplexity as to how such things can be [illegible] performance of this performance The same bill will again be performed this evening A matinee will be given on New Year's day for the convenience of people living at a distance or whose occupation prevents their attendance in the evening A change of programme will probably be announced to morrow The entertainment is well worthy the patronage of the public

CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL AT TURN-HALLE TO-NIGHT

We were favored with a peep at the stage in Turn Halle at the rehearsal and also were given some idea of the programme in detail and can safely say that no better holiday festival has ever taken place than that which is to be enjoyed to night by the children of the Unitarian Sunday school and their friends It is understood of course that the general public is invited and ample accommodations are provided for the entertainment of adults as well as the children The hall will be seated during the earlier exercises (which will begin promptly at 7½) and cleared for dancing by [illegible] The following is the programme

1 Christmas Carol by the Sunday School

2 Fairy Pantomime Little Willie's Dream of Christmas Eve

3 Christmas Carol, Silent Night by the Sunday School

4 St. Nicholas in his Sleigh with song followed by presentation of gifts to 200 children

The children will then march down stairs receiving their cakes etc in the lower room During the balance of the evening there will be dancing Refreshments furnished by the ladies to those wishing down stairs No one should miss this opportunity of seeing a happy wondering crowd of children and enjoying the feast of good things provided The children of the Sunday school are requested to be on hand promptly at the hall by 7

WM. SCHEFFLER'S ST. HELENA
SANITARY, VACUUM DISTILLED GRAPE BRANDY
AND GOOD OLD EDGE HILL WINES

Mr Scheffler is sole proprietor of the principle known as the vacuum process of distilling by which the fusil oils are left with the residue and not incorporated with the brandy, leaving it pure and free from all deleterious substances which does and must exist in all alcoholic liquors distilled by the usual process of boiling heat California Physicians have pronounced their preference of it to all other Doctor Cox government revenue officer at Cincinnati Ohio says in his report, that after ten years of close investigation he can safely say that very few if any, pure wines or brandy are exported from the Old Continent to this He has found none in his many analyses—that all are doctored before leaving France. The French Consul at Buenos Ayres writes home to his government that so much complaint is made there of the appearance of litharge and other dangerous drugs in all their French wines that there is great danger of losing the trade of the Argentine States Other proofs could be cited were it necessary to prove the superiority of the best class of California wines and brandy Orders from responsible parties addressed to Wm Scheffler or Geo H Beach St Helena Napa county Cal will receive prompt attention

LEMARS AND OKOLONA

Lemars

[Lemars (Ia) Sentinel Stalwart

KANSAS AND THE NEGRESS [illegible]

The boom of Africans is a hopeful republican lookout for Indiana — Okolona Independent Democrat

You bet

You see the Nigger must be good for something

Up till this moment he has been a scab on the body politic —

A cancer about whom political quacks have throttled each other

As a slave he was a picturesque image of misery and

A perennial fountain of

Philosophic and

Transcendental gush

As a freeman he was st [illegible]

as an enfranchised citizen of America he has been an

Unmitigated fizzle

A fraud

A failure

He was in [illegible] with the ballot to back up

The republican party

In Dixie and —

For that and nothing else

The [illegible] told us [illegible] sure enough so long as he was protected by

Yankee bayonets

He [illegible] part nobly

But [illegible] they were withdrawn

The bulldozer swept him out of the way with

Shotgun and

Torch and

Terror

The poor ignorant timid nigger had had all his manhood taken out of him by

The lash of southern barbarians in the days of slavery

And when left alone he either did not vote at all or

Voted the bulldozer's ticket

He's of no earthly use to those who gave him the ballot away down in Dixie and

It is high time he was utilized

Let the republican campaign committee send him

To Indiana

By the thousand

And the ten thousand

Where he can be protected in voting and

Directed how to vote

Indiana is to all intents and purposes a rebel state

With stalwarts enough in it to crush

Bulldozing

Intimidation and

Fraud

It needs about 20 000 republican votes to make it

As stalwart as Iowa

The niggers are our meat

They belong to the republican party

To the nation

And they should be placed where they will do the most good

It is an outrage to have them go to Kansas where they are not needed

While Indiana, which is practically in the hands of the rebel democracy

Has such urgent demand for

Twenty thousand stalwart niggers

Let there be no apologies excuses or whining on the part of republicans.

There is no need for secrecy or hypocrisy in this project of

Colonizing niggers enough

To carry the state of Indiana

Or any other doubtful state

For the party that

Conquered Treason and

Saved the Nation

As you remarked Mr Democrat The boom of Africans is a hopeful republican lookout for Indiana !

Hurrah for the imported Nigger !

Okolona.

[Okolona (Miss) Southern States Dem]

ULYSSES—HIS ARROGANT AND ASININE MENACE—IS HE FOOL AS WELL AS KNAVE?

'He who dares these boots displace
Must meet Bombastes face to face

During the electoral excitement of 1877 Henry Watterson one night called at the White House and was introduced to President Grant. The president received him graciously, and said

"Are you Henry Watterson?"

"I am," was the response

"The editor of the Courier Journal?"

"Yes, sir and a member of congress"

"And you are the same Congressman Watterson that in a public meeting held in Washington said that you could have 100 000 men here to inaugurate Tilden?"

"Yes, sir" replied Watterson

"Well" said Grant "Mr Watterson, had you brought those men here I could have taken care of every one of them My arrangements, I assure you were complete I could have accommodated them all." —Interview of Congressman Frye of Maine in Cincinnati Enquirer

Your clodhopper candidate for Gilt Ginger bread honors and homage is a Blathering Braggadocio

"I could have taken care of every one of them," yawps he,

And he makes us think of

Jack Falstaff,

Bombastes Furioso,

And all the thunder-tongued frauds of fiction.

But a few little facts will jam the juice out of this arrogant and asinine menace of the Gorgeous Gas bag

Imprimis

The United States army is only 25 000 strong.

It is scattered from the Green Mountains to Greaserdom

By tearing up a few railroads

And cutting a few telegraph wires, the major part of it could have been kept at a proper distance from Washington,

Until the Democratic President—

Samuel J Tilden—

Had taken the Oath of Office

One hundred thousand men could have captured the Capital without the sign of a struggle.

The Democratic party had

1 200 400

Majority of the white voters of the Confederate Union in 1876,

And Tilden would be de facto, as he is de jure, President to-day if it had not been for the treason of a few traitors within our own political household

Grant had five times as many soldiers as Lee

And it is a Napoleonic axiom that the Lord is forever on the side that has the most artillery

But, if the Confederate and Federal forces had been equal,

Your Bloody Boor would have been frazzled out in three shakes of a sheep's tail,

And would be living in the rigid retirement of an opaque obscurity to day

So,

If the Democratic majority

Had crossed swords with the Radical minority

In 1876,

Your little Mister Grant would have been walloped so

Teetotally and

Transcendentally

that his military notoriety would have been knocked into immortal chaos

Why, sirs! the single state of Mississippi

Rose up in her regal Nationalness in 18 5

Dared him to his teeth

And put down his

Pimps,

Parasites,

Plug-uglies,

Pirates, and

Picaroons,

who had usurped the power of her people

And he did not dare to lift the first joint of his little finger to prevent it

Why?

Because he saw that the South was a unit

While the North was divided and subdivided from center to periphery

And he came to the conclusion that discretion was the better part of valor

Grant may

Boast and

Puff himself up,

Like the Frog in the Fable

Between his sherry and champagne

But it was a Soft Snap for him that the 100 000 men did not march on Washington

If the torches of war had been lighted

And the sabers of war had been whetted

Through his idiotic instrumentality

He would be dust in his coffin to day

GRANT IN THE SOUTH

A QUOTATION FROM POLLARD'S HISTORY

As it seems to have been decided that Gen Grant is to make a southern tour the facts stated below, taken from Pollard's Lost Cause would if nothing else could be said entitle him to a courteous reception at the hands of the southern people

"On the 12th of April the army of northern Virginia had its last parade On that day in pursuance of arrangement of the commissioners of surrender the troops marched by divisions to a spot in the neighborhood of Appomattox court house when they stacked arms and deposited accoutrements About 7500 men laid down their arms but the capitulation included in addition some 18 000 stragglers who were unarmed and came up to claim the benefit of the surrender and accept parole With remarkable delicacy Gen Grant was not present at the ceremony and had not been visible since his interview [illegible] federal commander had in the closing scenes of the contest behaved with a magnanimity and decorum that ever must be remembered to his credit even by those who disputed his reputation in other respects and denied his claims to great generalship He had with remarkable facility accorded honorable and liberal terms to the vanquished army He did nothing to dramatize the surrender He made no triumphal entry into Richmond He avoided all these displays of triumph which are so dear to the northern heart He spared everything that might wound the feelings or imply humiliation of a vanquished foe There were no [illegible] sensational shows He received the surrender of his adversary with ever [illegible] conducted the closing scenes with as [illegible] as possible

JAY GOULD

A Chapter About the Coming Railroad King of America

THE [illegible]

[illegible]

Correspondence of the St Louis Republican

NEW YORK Nov [illegible] —Jay Gould promises to be the railroad king of America [illegible] Sometimes he lives wholly with [illegible] His life is [illegible] the [illegible] Jay Gould [illegible] he has [illegible] none of them gets [illegible] It will be no misfortune for the [illegible] of Missouri for him to become [illegible] of its many miles of railroads [illegible] all this he invests his money in [illegible] New York Tribune seemed in [illegible] Mr Gould purchased the controlling interest in it Had he become its owner [illegible] present brick and mortar suggestion of a sugar refinery would not have been possible for Jay Gould doesn't run to gimcracks even in architecture The tall tower however was there and it was plastered with a big mortgage Mr Gould directed that the energies of the whole institution should be directed toward getting rid of that debt and said that he wanted no dividends until the mortgage was lifted Perhaps Jay Gould will some day take editorial charge of the Tribune himself He is a terse classical writer with a habit of piercing the heart of his subject in the first dash of his pen Once he was

AN EDITOR AND A GOOD ONE

Even in the midst of making millions he has found time to write an occasional editorial article for the Tribune or to make a skeleton of his ideas that the pen drivers in the tall tower might array them in the brocaded English in fashion there Mr Gould has a strong newspaper instinct He has an orthodox respect for a fact which becomes an editor He gathers more information daily by telegraph and mail now about his enterprises than do some journals about the news of the world He has the art of organizing a news service which would come charmingly into use if he once became the Tribune's editor Mr Gould is a humane thinker a man fertile in expedients and remedies and as an editor his suggestions would be valuable upon national state and commercial affairs * * Now with a newspaper on his hands with a telegraph system reaching out in every direction and crawling under the ocean to link the continents together, with an army of 100 000 railroad and telegraphic employes the continent over each instructed to promptly convey to the nearest bureau all the rumors views and suggestions that come to him what a Utopia of journalism he could make for himself!

MR GOULD'S MILLIONS

Now crowd close to those of Vanderbilt He is a man of finer texture than the old commodore's son He doesn't run to fine houses costly stables and blooded steeds At night when he dismisses his operators from the telegraph offices in his own house in Fifth avenue and enters up in a little book the telegraphic reports of the receipts of the various railroads which he owns he does not go to a club to carouse to a banquet to steam up with champagne or to a theater He retires to the recesses of a peaceful library, and with his young sons about him reads the Latin classics the world forgetting but not by the world forgot—by a large majority The next morning early he has the telegraph doing lightning service and he is sending an electric shock through Wall street as soon as the bulls and the bears come into that field for pasture Mr Gould is a liberal man although when he makes a bequest he does not have the information written in manifold and sent to all the newspapers The first news New York had of his gift to the Memphis sufferers of $5 000 came from Memphis as did the news of the second gift of $5,000 * * *

Tilden whispers and whispers and every few days it is announced that another state has suddenly become convinced that he must be renominated Talk about silent sewing machines? There never was a piece of machinery capable of so much work with so little noise as the famous still-hunt engine with its automatic barrel attachment

More Reinforcements.
